Policies and Guidelines

Objective: Kathak Dance Academy stands to preserve and promote the awareness of Kathak in society by giving authentic dance education to the students.

Registration:

Registration form is a contract. Your signature indicates that you agree to comply with Kathak Dance Academy's policies. Making exceptions means no rules. There will be a $15 registration fee per year.

Tuition:

Tuition in full is due on the first day of the semester. No classes will be given unless tuition is paid. Tuition is neither refundable nor discounted for classes missed by students. Student may attend other batch of the same level if available.

Music:

There will be a cost for a dance music and costume if it is available. The music can not be reproduced or used anywhere besides Kathak Dance Academy's programs without permission. There will be a late fee of $5 will be charged for every week of late return of the costume.

Annual school Recital:

The Kathak Dance Academy may do an Annual function where students get an experience to perform. Students will elect whether to perform or not in the beginning of the year.

A performance fee of $50 per student is due on the first day of the Semester. Or the Cost of the function will be distributed among the students.

Students are required to attend a dress rehearsal.

Public Performances:

Any organization interested in Academy's or students' performance must contact teacher directly. Student will not be allowed to perform anywhere without teacher's consent. The extra time to rehearse for the performance will be charged.

Termination:

Kathak Dance Academy reserves the right to terminate the dance instruction of any student at any time, with or without cause. In the event that a student is terminated without cause, Kathak Dance Academy agrees to refund any unearned tuition. In the Event that a student is terminated for cause, then no refund of tuition fees shall be made. Cause for termination can be any action by a student or parent of a student in contravention of the stated Kathak Dance Academy's policies.

Liability of Kathak dance academy:

Kathak dance Academy is not and shall not be responsible for injuries to any Student while attending class or on the premises of Kathak Dance Academy.

Attendance: Full attendance and regularity is important for the progress.

Punctuality: Students are required to be ready with their Ghunghroos on scheduled time. It means arrive early to allow time to wear Ghunghroos.

Riaz (Practice): Practice and discipline are keys to success. Students are required to practice three times a week for 30 minutes (at least) for the best results.

Attire:

All students should wear choovidar-kurta. It is important for the teacher to see the footwork clearly and to experience the added aspect of culture.

Behavior:

Student is expected to be respectful and courteous with the teacher as well as other students at all the times.
